NATIONAL BANK OF PORTLAND.
SAVINGS DEPARTMENT!

THIS BANK has established in connection with its general Banking business a SAVINGS DEPARTMENT and will allow interest on [illegible] deposits made in accordance with the conditions adopted by this Bank.

In establishing a Savings Department this Banking Association has in view the benefits to accrue to a class of persons having small sums to loan by providing a safe place of deposit, ample security and fair rate of interest, as well as to aggregate and bring into use idle capital.

For the safety of deposits in this Bank are pledged its entire capital and resources, and also the personal liability of its Directors and Stockholders as provided by Sec. 12 of the National Currency Act approved June 3d 1864, a greater security than that given by ordinary Savings Banks. Printed copies of the conditions upon which deposits are received may be had upon application to the Bank.

HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw and is therefore easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent heretofore considered the best in use.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO OCTOBER 19

Richmond Dispatch

RICHMOND Oct 19.—A resolution was offered in both houses of the Legislature congratulating the country upon the recent Republican victories at the North. The Senate tabled the resolution as out of the province of this Legislature. The House adjourned without action.

Railroad Accident.

LOUISVILLE Oct 18.—W. [illegible] Coleman, conductor on the Lebanon branch railroad, was instantly killed by falling between the cars.

Catholic Demonstration at Montreal

MONTREAL Oct 18. The grandest Catholic procession ever witnessed in Montreal occurred yesterday, the occasion being the transfer of the relics of St. Lena from Bonsecours church to the Bishop's Palace. Over thirty thousand people joined in the procession.

Supreme Court Opinion

WASHINGTON Oct 18.—The Supreme Court to-day delivered an opinion in the case of McKee vs the United States in an action for cotton and property captured at Alexandria in the spring of 1864. The claimant was a citizen and traded beyond the lines under permit of the Treasury. The courts held that the permit from the Treasury agent authorizing him to trade with an enemy beyond the military lines was without authority.

Base Ball

CINCINNATI Oct 18.—The Red Stockings beat the Athletics to-day 17 to 12—the best contested game ever played in Cincinnati.

Philadelphia Dispatch

PHILADELPHIA Oct. 18.—Charles Gibbons by virtue of a decision in the contested election case has entered on the duties of the office of District Attorney pro tem until the decision of the Supreme Court on a writ of certiorari is issued. This writ it is reported was issued by Judge Sharswood previous to his departure for Pittsburg many hours before the decision in the case was pronounced in the Court of Common Pleas. It will therefore be disregarded by a majority of the Supreme Court Judges.

Mechanics Strikes

NEW YORK Oct 18.—A formidable strike of the mechanics employed in the shops of the Erie Railroad is in progress. Not less than 600 men have refused to work, with 400 at the Susquehannah and 200 at Jersey City. The scarcity of currency has prevented the payment of the men, and that company has been compelled, at times to pay as high as two per cent. for money to pay off their rolls. It is said that it has also been delayed by freshets and breaks on the road, but it is claimed that all hands on the 15th except those at Port Jarvis, numbering 110, were paid off. They were to have been paid on Saturday but struck on Friday and were the following day paid and dismissed. The Susquehannah hands struck in consequence thereof on Sunday. Those at Jersey City to-day have been paid and discharged. It is supposed those at Buffalo—200 more—are also on a strike. The officers of the road say the strike will occasion no interruption of the business of the road. Applications are numerous, and they have no difficulty in filling the places of the strikers with new men. It appears that the Erie company some months ago, inaugurated a system of consolidation of machine shops. Those at Patterson and Piedmont have been closed. The Port Jarvis shop will be closed soon with the object of reducing expenses.

Father Hyacinthe arrived to-day on the Pereire and proceeded very quietly to the House of a friend. Reports say he will be waited upon by deputations of various denominations and societies and requested to explain his views on Roman Catholicism before their congregations.

BUFFALO Oct. 19.—The employes in the Erie workshops, 200 in number, struck for regular pay this morning. At a meeting this afternoon a resolution was adopted stating their grievances, and expressing a determination to hold out until the object sought is accomplished.

Father Hyacinthe

BOSTON Oct. 19.—The pastors of the Evangelical churches of Boston and vicinity at a meeting to-day, appointed a commission to confer with Father Hyacinthe and make suitable arrangements to extend to him a public reception if deemed advisable.

Case of the Hornet.

WASHINGTON Oct 18.—A gentleman who arrived direct from Wilmington says the United States Commissioners Collector of the Port and Prosecuting Attorney have no doubt but that the Hornet will be condemned and dismantled. The steamer Frolic which was sent from New York here was under orders to prevent the departure of the Hornet at all hazards even to sinking her. The Frolic is still at Wilmington and will remain and render any assistance necessary till the case is decided. The revenue cutter McCall is also at Wilmington. It is not supposed that Capt Higgins will be held for trial as he assumed command on the high seas after the Hornet received her armament and ammunition. The Paymaster will be the only one tried.

WILMINGTON, Oct 21.—The case of the Hornet is postponed until Thursday, on account of the absence of one of the counsel for the steamer.

Tennessee Affairs.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 19.—The Senate to-day unanimously adopted a resolution affirming that the people of Tennessee will never signalize their restoration to the control of public affairs by countenancing in any manner, a disregard of their public obligations, and declaring that the resources of the State should be faithfully appropriated to the payment of the interest on the bonded debt and securing of the principal to maturity.

The Senatorial election occurs to-morrow. Johnson's chances continue the best, though his opponents say he cannot be elected. They do not however name the man that can defeat him.

Pendleton Heard From

PITTSBURG Oct 19.—The Post this morning contains an article by Mr. Pendleton against attacks of some Eastern Democratic papers and calls for a convention of Democrats of the Mississippi valley to take action on the political situation.

The Capital Convention

ST LOUIS Oct 19.—A meeting of citizens will be held to-night to make final arrangements for the National Capital Convention which meets on Wednesday. Sixteen States and Territories are represented by their delegates. About thirty delegates have already arrived, among them Gov Haight of California and Gov Pile of New Mexico.

The New Celebrity

NEW YORK Oct 19.—Father Hyacinthe is at the Fifth Avenue Hotel where he will remain in seclusion ten days. He will then visit Boston and Washington. At the expiration of his visit to this country he will proceed to Rome to receive admission to the Ecumenical Council. He has brought letters to Gen Dix, Henry Ward Beecher and other distinguished men of the country. He does not speak the English language.

Virginia Senators.

RICHMOND Oct 19.—A caucus of Walker members of the Legislature to-night nominated as Senators John T Lewis and John W Johnson. Lewis was a member of the Secession Convention and voted against and refused to sign the ordinance of secession. He was a Union man through the war and was the candidate of the Walker party for Lt. Governor and lead the ticket over 200. Johnson is the nephew of Jos R Johnson and is a lawyer and was a Union man through the war. He was appointed Judge of the Washington Circuit by Gen Canby. The caucus of the Walker members nominated W. I. Chambers late United States District Attorney and [illegible] Alexander Sharpe present Marshal of the District of Columbia. The caucus also appointed a commission to carry to Washington the protest of the Republican members of the Legislature against the legality of that body.

From Cuba

HAVANA Oct 19. Three steamers have reached Cuba within the past 48 hours all bringing reinforcements for the Spanish Army. A steam transport direct from Cadiz touched at Cien Fuegos yesterday and landed some 5 000 men. Another steamer arrived this morning full of troops.

Mr Seward in Mexico

Advices from Mexico state that Mr Seward arrived at Manzanillo Oct 7th. He was received with salutes from the forts and was met by Gen [illegible] in the name of President Juarez, who welcomed the distinguished guest to Mexico. A member of the Cabinet has left the capital [illegible] to welcome Mr. Seward and party.

In the National Congress measures are under consideration with regard to a sinking fund and to provide for the reduction of the national debt.

Congress refused to grant further rail road concessions [illegible] to part of which [illegible] prove the [illegible] comply with the terms of the contract.

There are now two thousand miles of telegraph in operation and extra roads are in progress and [illegible] miles in active operation.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

MADRID Oct. 18. The loss of life in the seige of Valencia was trifling. Of the national troops only two were killed and seven wounded. The losses of the insurgents are unknown. It is ascertained that no tax payers or house holders of Valencia took part in the revolt. The capture of Valencia has had a tranquilizing effect all over the country. Official reports state that only a few remnants of dispersed bands are now roaming the provinces.

LONDON Oct 18.—The Times has an article on [illegible]. The writer admits that General Prim is not a man of transcendent genius but has depth and coolness and boundless ambition. He has the army in his hands and intends to keep it. As long as Spain is without a king none can wrest it from his sword, which is the real sceptre of Spain. Prim sees this and resolves that no king shall preside but one of his own making or under his influence, but above all not Montpensier whom he always opposed. It is not easy or hardly desirable to break through the arrangements which places Spain in his hands and virtual sovereignty. If Prim is disposed to make good use of his victory let him introduce not improvident clemency or inordinate liberty but true order based on legality.

PARIS Oct 18. The Council of Ministers met this morning at Compeigne, the Emperor presiding, and held two sessions to-day. Drouyn de L'Huys has gone to Compeigne to supply the place of Prince La Tour D'Auvergne, Minister of Foreign Affairs, whose continued illness prevents his attendance.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

Judicial Election.

SAN FRANCISCO Oct. 21.—The election in this city yesterday resulted in a majority of 750 votes for Wallace and 4 175 for Crocket. Morrison's majority is 951, McKinstry's 479, Sawyer 546. Total vote less than 13,000.

JACKSON Cal Oct. 22.—Returns from all precincts but one in Amador Co give Crockett 821, Wallace 516, Sawyer 592, Pratt 591. For District Judge Adams 789, Briggs 608.

STOCKTON Oct. 24.—The election returns from the various precincts throughout the county are meagre. It is estimated that the Democratic candidates will have 250 majority. It rained hard last night and this forenoon. To-night it is clear and pleasant overhead.

Six hundred and fifty three dollars and seventy cents is the amount donated to the San Francisco Benevolent Association at the polls yesterday.

The billiard game of 300 points at the Fair last night between Deery and Dutton was won by the former by 340 points.

J Drummond, chief officer of the Littleton, had his leg broken in two places by a falling spar.

A private letter received yesterday by the steamer America states that the Austrian fleet arrived at Osaca, Japan, Sept. 24th with the Commissioners of that Government, who were en route to Yeddo for the purpose of negotiating a treaty with the Japanese Government.

The City Bank has declared a dividend of one per cent per month for the past six months.

A Queer Political Muddle

[Chicago Letter October 5th.]

Is a Republican form of government a mere farce? Is all the talk about the priceless rights of the ballot box nonsense, and should we be better off under the rule of a Napoleon or a Victoria? Probably not, but the questions arise when we see the filthy pool of politics stirred up as it is now in this city and county. Chicago and Cook county gave a large Republican majority last Fall as they have done for several years. They will not do it next November. The Republican Convention last month nominated a ticket of usual strength and respectability, containing the names of some now holding office. Then arose a cry about "barnacles," "rings," "Court House clique," etc., and a few prominent citizens met together and made up a fusion ticket containing the names both of Republicans and Democrats, and hoisted it as the "Citizens' ticket." Thereat many genuine and unterrified Democrats waxed profane and announced that they would not take up their bed with Radicals, but proposed to start another ticket of their own. Similarly also sundry Republicans elevated their [illegible] and vowed that they would neither support the regular Republican ticket with its barnacle attachments nor affiliate with the [illegible] mixed platform, and began to talk of a "People's Ticket." Finally the still small voice of the [illegible] is heard crying out, though with little confidence, for a prohibition ticket, and so accepting heartily none of the others, as they do not propose to meddle with the liquor question while there are some 15 000 or so over-confident German voters to propitiate. And in all this struggle there is precious little disinterestedness—with the exception of the temperance men. The contestants are the Outs and Ins, the object the spoils of office. No charges of any seriousness are brought against the first nominees, but there are many who imagine that change is always a blessing, and are go[illegible] for a new deal. The newspapers all want the city printing and carry on the fight in that hope. The Evening Post and the Staats Zeitung support the regular nominations; the other five dailies are on the other side of the fence. Vituperation, ridicule and lying are liberally indulged in, and the dregs and quantities of the milk of human kindness are daily [illegible]. Money and epithets are frequently lavished, and for the next five weeks there will be little decency to spare in Chicago political circles. [illegible] looks to a man up a tree.

An old man whose sight was defective and had to use glasses was reading a newspaper in the train between Wheeling, W. Va. and Washington a few days ago. When the cars reached the first tunnel the quick disappearance of the light caused him to look up. Taking off his spectacles and wiping them, he replaced them and again tried to read. Perceiving that all was still dark, he dropped the paper and spectacles, exclaiming [illegible] "My God! I'm blind!" This amused the passengers, and it was a long time before he could be convinced what was the matter. On coming again to the light he thanked God fervently for his sight.

The Baptist Theological Seminary of Chicago has obtained the library of the famous Prussian commentator, Hengstenberg, consisting of 12 000 volumes, mostly German and Latin, for only six thousand dollars. The Berlin institutions are so poor they couldn't compete.

A temperance lecturer has started from Kansas with the declared intention of walking to Augusta, Maine, and delivering a lecture on temperance every evening while on his way.

The Commissioners of Indiana to [illegible] its war claims against the General Government [illegible] that there are due the State $781,178 24 for war expenses. The proofs and vouchers forwarded to the Secretary of the Treasury fill two large dry goods boxes.

If we may credit the unofficial account which the St. Louis Democrat gives of the result of the recent trip to England made by Mr. Whitmore, Secretary of the St. Louis Grain Association, the Western project of shipping grain in bulk to Europe direct, by the way of the Mississippi, will soon be pushed to success.

Mr. Segar is Member of Congress-elect from Virginia, and has been in Washington interviewing the authorities. We also have authority for the assertion that the President has interviewed one of Mr. Segar's family frequently, and with disastrous effect to the interviewed. The conversation, in fact, was [illegible].

The Newburyport (Mass.) Herald thinks it is time for a "strike" in the lecture business, and adds: "One or two hundred dollars for an hour's talk about reform, woman's rights, [illegible] and the like is what 'Poor Richard' [illegible] dear for the whistle. The professors of the Academy of Science, at Salem, will furnish lectures of real value upon scientific subjects, at less than quarter the money, and forty times as good."

One of the most ingenious [illegible] of [illegible] advertising is from the Arkansas Hot Springs Courier: "The habit of convalescing rheumatics and paralytics throwing their cast-off crutches and canes into the street is becoming too common, and is attended with danger to vehicles. One day last week a spring was broken in front of the Warm House by a crutch thoughtlessly thrown into the street by some one ignorant of the damage it would cause."

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

In your issue of October 16th there appears a special notice over my signature, of Dr. George Jordon of San Francisco. I wish to say that the notice referred to does me great injustice. First—I did not write it. Secondly—It contains statements which are positively false. Thirdly—I never authorized Dr. Jordon or any other man to sign my name to it.

The following statement appears in said notice, viz: "He delivered a lecture upon Moral Philosophy, involving the subject of his life, for the benefit of building the Methodist Church. As many tickets were sold [illegible] to about one hundred dollars." This statement is very erroneous. He did, on the evening referred to, deliver a miserably poor lecture, to a very small audience, and the nett proceeds, amounting to just twenty-one dollars, were applied to the M. E. Church in this place.

If Dr. George Jordon wishes publicity by fair [illegible] the signatures of [illegible] to his false statements he is certainly welcome to the benefit of this. If he wishes "puffs" of his popularity as a lecturer he must make them himself, as he doubtless did the one in question, or [illegible] from those who have a higher appreciation of his ability as a lecturer or an honest man than I have. For the benefit of the Doctor, "on his return from the Sound," and of my friends in Hillsboro, I desire this to have a [illegible] place both in the daily and weekly OREGONIAN.

The truth is that the right of canal way, which has been bandied about in every market and to every Government, is extremely valuable to any power able and willing to carry out the stupendous project of a ship canal. It is to be hoped that another year will not pass without a treaty being signed for that purpose. The failure to ratify the Caleb Cushing protocol last spring need not discourage the friends of the scheme.

FRIDAY MORNING OCTOBER 22 1869

Echoes from the Blue Mountains

A new outrage on the laboring classes is recorded by the La Grande Sentinel. A new scheme is developed to build up a moneyed aristocracy on the ruins of a government that was once the pride of the civilized world. The La Grande paper is the discoverer of this plot, so atrocious in its intent and so baneful in its consequences. It is "the diabolical bankrupt law," that is to accomplish this dreadful purpose. The creditors of certain parties in Eastern Oregon are so unreasonable as to want their money, and to commence proceedings under the bankrupt act to get as much of it as possible. This gives the Sentinel which stands at La Grande on the watch tower of freedom occasion for sounding the alarm. "Nothing, it declares with fine frenzy,—"nothing that has been done by the party in power has ever touched the hearts of the people and caused them to pause and reflect over the long, dark list of crimes perpetrated against the laboring classes, equal to the enforcement of this diabolical bankrupt law." This terrible crime against the laboring classes consists in the commencement of proceedings against a couple of mercantile firms, believed to be insolvent, by their creditors! And about forty persons who are evidently opposed, on principle, to such an "outrage" as that of enforcing payment of debts or taking a creditor's property therefor, publish a remonstrance against the proceeding while the Sentinel fills all the mountain gorges with the echoes of its indignant declamation against the "Shylocks" who want their money and are trying to get as much of it as they can!

This, we think, is rather the most savage indictment which has yet been drawn up "against the party in power." And so exasperated is the organ at La Grande that it threatens dire vengeance. "There is," it says, "in the entire community, a feeling so bitter against these proceedings that should they be persisted in we would not answer for the action that would be liable to follow." Ominous and terrible threat! Does it mean rebellion or assassination? Well may the tyrants of this Abolition Government tremble now!

We have searched through the record of this "outrage" with some care in order to ascertain what interest the "laboring classes" have in the matter, but are unable to see the force of the La Grande paper's allusion. Therefore we conclude that it has patched an article which it designed to print on the "labor question" with some powerful remarks on the wrongfulness of taking a debtor's property for his liabilities, and by this judicious union or blending of two articles into one, has succeeded in producing an essay which is expected to annihilate "Radicalism" utterly. Under this odious law, so it tells us, "every man is to be driven out of business who cannot pay cash down for all he may wish to purchase." Startling discovery! But if it were true we do not see that it would be so very disastrous to the laboring classes, inasmuch as such a course would certainly give them cheap goods.

The simple explanation of all this is that the Democratic organ at La Grande is groping for political "issues," and finding nothing else [illegible] it valiantly attacks the "diabolical bankrupt law."

Several of the New York journals have recently published powerful articles exposing the complicity of the Tammany judiciary with the Wall street gambling operations. The Times says: "For the fraudulent conspiracy which has disgraced Wall street and widely diffused disaster and ruin, the Democratic party of this State is directly responsible. The conspirators would have been powerless but for the protection and support accorded them by Judges whose official existence is derived from Tammany. The moneyed means with which the conspirators played had been inaccessible to them had not the Governor whom Tammany gave to the State enabled them to obtain a five years' control of the revenues and property of railroads that are cursed by their mismanagement." The several steps of their rascality are traced by the Times, culminating in the great gold gambling scheme. By unlawful over-issues of railroad stock they were enabled to commence their operations and enormously increase the great influence already in their hands. They made themselves a power in the State, and in a measure arbiters of its destinies. To hold their position they required political influence. Tammany needed money, they needed political help. The alliance was made, and the railroad ring and the political ring became partners. The funds required for the last State election were contributed by the money partners of the association. Their railroads became the base of Hoffman's canvassing movements. By the joint endeavors of these partners in wrong, those funds were organized which secured Hoffman's election. Then the Tammany Judges promptly repaid the railroad ring for the service. They threw the judicial shield over the most flagrant frauds. All the iniquitous railroad operations of the Erie ring are promptly sustained by the "Courts." This ring was thus enabled to wield an influence which was simply gigantic. Getting enormous power in their hands, they came into the money market, and by the combinations they were able to make they forced up the price of gold and threw the whole country into commotion. And when affairs took an unexpected turn, causing them to suffer heavily from their own [illegible] transactions the Tammany Judges came to their relief by granting one injunction after another for their especial protection. The union of the money power and the politicians has thus grown into a tontine of infamy, a partnership for pillage and for political supremacy. There was no man engaged in the recent gold gambling operations who is not prominently connected with the partnership formed by the coalition of the railroad and the Tammany rings. Every actor in these disgraceful and disastrous operations is connected with the Democratic party, and the Times truly declares that the time has come when an outraged public opinion must firmly hold the Democratic party responsible for all these stupendous evils which are so directly traceable to the supremacy of a wicked power in its midst, and when all men of honor and principle in that party must decide whether they will openly sustain the authors of such iniquity, or will repudiate them as the corrupters of public morality and the common enemies of the public honor and security.

The drinking, smoking, and chewing, of the working men of New York costs them $9,720,000 per annum.

A Clear Definition

An editorial in the Herald informs us that the Republican party is "approaching its fall." This must be cheering information for the Democracy, coming as it does the very next week after the defeat of Pendleton, the father of every principle which the Democratic party is contending for! We are told why the Republican party must "fall." Says our oracle: "The Republicans, to keep the field successfully must organize a powerful white man's party at the South. The blindest among them discover the negro vote hopelessly lost to them in a few years by the diverse interests at stake. The negro must ultimately become a repudiator because he is poor, a free trader because his interests are all agricultural, and an agrarian because it is his nature."

The argument, then, is that the Republican party will "fall" because it must lose the negro vote. The negro will become a "repudiator," a "free trader" and an "agrarian," and so soon as he gets down to this position he will naturally and inevitably vote Democratic! We have here a statement of what it takes to make a person a Democrat, and the statement is one we are not prepared to question. The only point in doubt is, whether the colored people generally can ever come down so low as to be good Democrats according to the Herald's definition of Democracy. As to the Republican party, it can win whether it has the negro vote or not, so no apprehension need be felt on that head.

In General.

The Savannah Republican thinks, that if angels were patriots, they would weep at the sad spectacle of Southerners prostrating themselves at the footstool of Federal power, and supplicating its favor. The editor of the Savannah paper, it would be entirely safe to guess, is a Northern Copperhead who was too cowardly to fight for his principles during the war.

Just before the late election in Ohio, the Cincinnati Enquirer, the leading Pendleton organ of the State, declared that "the paramount issue is the national debt and the form of its payment," and that "the verdict will be recognized as the settlement of a national question." Well, we have the verdict, and the national question is settled. Repudiation Democrats of Oregon, do you hear?

The completion of the Suez Canal disturbs the London Times. That paper calls on the enterprising men of England to go in for a grand overland railway from the Bosphorus to the Indus—to run by way of Constantinople and Bussorah to the Euphrates Valley and thence along the coast of the Persian Gulf and Beloochistan to the great peninsula. The Times says the line of an American Atlantic and Pacific railway looked as difficult in 1855 as the above line of 5,000 miles does at present.

The spirit of revolt against municipal "rings" has penetrated New York city and Brooklyn, and there is every prospect of a union against the abominations of Tammany in the one city, and the rule of the "regular" Democracy in the other, that will eventuate in the success of a non-partisan ticket made up of honest men. This may seem to be an impossibility, but this is a splendid year for bolting, and the disposition to clear off the rubbish from misgoverned cities appears to have assumed an epidemic form.

The Democrats of Mississippi have tried in every way to cajole the negroes and get their votes; but recent accounts say that the mass of the colored voters reject their overtures. This fact the Democratic oracles down there are now trying to turn to account by descanting on the perils of political parties based on distinction of races, and by asserting that the public peace depends on securing a reasonable proportion of the colored vote for the Conservative Democratic candidates! They say that if the mass of the colored voters support the "Radical" ticket there will be a "war of races"!

It is well known that a considerable number of the best Democrats of Portland revolted last June from the dictation of the clique that controlled their party and refused to vote the so-called Democratic city ticket. On the morning after the election we admitted that the Republicans were largely indebted for the completeness of their victory to the independence and public spirit of these Democratic citizens. But the Democratic organ says that "the villains who are now robbing our citizens and threaten to murder them, are the men to whom the Radicals owe their victory last June." Complimentary, indeed, to the best and most respectable men in the Democratic party!

The Herald of yesterday had a long article designed to prove that "the Republican authorities" dared not arrest the thieves and marauders who have recently been operating extensively in various parts of the city for the reason that there was a bargain last June whereby the "roughs" were to be secured against punishment for crime on condition of their voting the Republican city ticket! But it so happened that while the editor was elaborating this essay the city officers were on the track of the thieves, and before the said startling essay was published to the world the whole gang was ferreted out, arrested, and lodged in jail. Is it possible that the Democracy of Portland can't get any one to run their organ who has judgment enough to manage the concern in a way that is not utterly ridiculous and contemptible?

Letter from Olympia

OLYMPIA, W T, Oct 19, 1869

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

This has been a somewhat exciting day among the Legislators assembled. You have been informed in a former letter that Blinn and Clarke, bolting Republicans had the power by absenting themselves to check all legislation, and they made very free use of this accidental privilege, for whenever anything was being proposed which they desired to oppose they would immediately retire and before "a call of the House" could be had some friendly unknown shelter in the neighborhood of the Capitol would afford them refuge against the process in the hands of the Sergeant at Arms. However on Saturday night, Hon E S Joselyn from Skamania county arrived in town as a claimant of the seat formerly occupied by Col Tripp, who in 1867 was elected for four years. The latter, however, having resided in Alaska since the summer of 1868, it was deemed by the Republicans at the last general election that the seat became vacant, because the statute provided that a vacancy was created by operation of law, whenever the member ceased to be an inhabitant of the district for which he was elected. Therefore, Mr Joselyn a staunch Republican was nominated and received the unanimous vote of the party in the district. It is true, that the Governor did not issue his proclamation for another election, but Fred A Clarke, one of the bolting members was elected under similar circumstances and holds his seat undisputed. To day Mr Joselyn presented his certificate of election in due form and the President ordered him to be sworn in. Thereupon everything was in commotion. The Copperheads in the lobby (of whom there were quite a number) fluttered about and sent for reinforcements from the lower House, while the irrepressible Van Syckle, the only Democrat now in the Council made one of his peculiar inimitable blood and thunder harangues. Motions and cross motions followed in rapid succession neither party prevailing there being three Republicans (Mr Lane Struve and Bradshaw) against the two bolters and Van Syckle. They finally made a break for the door, but their exit was arrested by the Sergeant at Arms, who, by order of the President and under a call of the House brought them back within the bar. They had to stay there to face the music and Mr Joselyn was duly sworn in as a member. By Joselyn taking his seat the bolters have lost their power to break the quorum, Van Syckle being too much of a man to descend to such childish tricks and the straight out Republicans have full control of both branches of the Legislature. You may look for screaming articles in next weeks Times [illegible] and [illegible] and many a solemn protest against "these high handed outrages" and "this climax of infamy."

The Roeder and Eldridge contest is to be tried in the House to morrow. Democratic rascality gave the seat to Eldridge because upon an actual recount of all the ballots the vote was found to be a tie and I am informed by persons who are familiar with the testimony that five or six illegal Democratic votes for Roeder were clearly proven.

The Olympia Transcript newspaper as rumor hath it has been purchased by Marshall Blinn to enter the list as the champion of the aforesaid Blinn. The latter is a respectable gentleman rather weak in his upper story whose aversion to Garfield and the Republican party has degenerated into absolute fanaticism and who some time ago was fitly described by the same Transcript as a man who didn't know anything in to about [illegible] than that celebrated animal known as "Thompson's colt." This I state upon the authority of the Commercial Age newspaper, which by the way bids fair to become the leading influential journal on the Sound. Its editor should perhaps show a little more snap.

The District Court will meet here in about two weeks. Some heavy suits are upon the docket, among others a damage suit brought by the O. S. Co against Captain Hale and others for $5,000 arising out of a breach of contract concerning the steamer New World.

The most remarkable railroad in Germany and Europe is the new Black Forest road, which will be completed within four years. Between Hornberg and St. George situated 2,870 feet above the level of the sea and but four miles distant from Hornberg, the railroad ascends nearly 2,000 feet and passes through 27,000 feet of tunnels. Eleven thousand feet of the latter have been completed during the last two years. The truly Cyclopean work on the road is progressing rapidly, and attracting thousands of visitors, who flock together from all parts of Southern Germany and Switzerland.

Democracy means repudiation, according to Brick Pomeroy, the big Democratic light. He says: "A Democrat is a repudiator, and it may as well be known first as last. Let the question be brought squarely to an issue, and you will see who are repudiators, and how many there are of them."

The mistress of a mud cabin in Sioux City refuses to buy her daughter a piano because "such things are getting altogether too common."

BALSAMIC COMPOUND
THE GRAND DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE!

AMONG THE MOST PAINFUL AND TRYING DISorders to which the human frame is liable are those engendered by affections of the organs of generation resulting either from the contaminating influence of an unrestrained passion or to constitutional and hereditary infirmity. Nothing tends more to impair virility, and to undermine the very foundation of life than the wilful neglect or improper treatment of such insidious diseases. In the former case the malady becomes chronic and often incurable and in the latter the constitution is weakened, and in many cases destroyed by the exhibition of powerful and deleterious medicines.

The BALSAMIC COMPOUND after a course of successful experience is now confidently submitted to the public as an infallible and safe specific for those prevalent and widely spread diseases above referred to, and all complaints of the Urinary and Genital Organs.

As a Preventive of these deplorable consequences too often the result of indiscretion, the Balsamic Compound will be unfailing in its efficacy. It possesses the advantages of being taken without any unnecessary restriction in diet, and as it is a purely vegetable compound it may in all cases be used with perfect safety. Treasury Dodge.—Our attention was called yesterday to a trick which is said to be practiced to some extent by parties in this State in the sacking of grain sent to this market for sale or shipment to San Francisco. The trick consists in filling the sacks about half full of damaged, shrunken wheat and then filling the balance with good grain—sometimes of the old crop. In some cases brought to light on our wharves the sacks have good wheat at each end and shrunken and dirty wheat in the middle. The purpose seems to be not to increase the measure or weight, but to get the price of good wheat instead of the price of poor wheat, the difference being quite considerable both in this and the San Francisco markets. It is a dishonest trick, the intention being to defraud, but it cannot succeed. The persons who play it do no more than expose themselves to the shame of detection in a stupid and disreputable dodge. If they suppose that they can palm off such stuff upon buyers, they are much mistaken. There will be not a sack go into market without its being known for its real quality. The experienced grain buyer will test the sacks top, bottom and middle more rapidly than the party selling can tie or sew them up. He will know exactly what he is buying—just as surely as if he had seen the grain as it went into the sacks, spoonful by spoonful. Not only will the mixture of grains be detected, but the party playing the trick will actually lose money by it. If he has fifty sacks of choice wheat and fifty of bad, he might be able to sell the choice at San Francisco for $1 50 per cental and the poor for $1 20. For the first his return would be $75; for the other $60; total $135. Now if he will mix the two kinds of grain in the manner above stated, or in any other manner, he will have just as many centals, but he can't, to save his life, get more for the mixture than is the value of the poorer quality. For his one hundred centals he will get $1 20 per cental, or a total of $120; thus, beside losing his reputation, he will lose $15 by the operation. If any man chooses to damage himself in reputation and pocket it is his own affair, except when he so practices as to affect the good name of a community as in this case. The buyers in the market will not hold the individual responsible for the dishonest practice, but will charge it at the hands of the people of Oregon. Our enterprising community will get into bad odor. We have had enough of this in the past in such matters. Do we not very well remember how Californians used to sneer at Oregon butter and hams and bacon, in the preparation of which a great many frauds and tricks similar to this grain dodge used to be practiced? We have in that respect pretty well rid ourselves of our bad reputation by more honest and careful practices. Our grain has always borne a good reputation, and now in the name of the people of Oregon, we protest against this grievous wrong which mean and dishonest men are about to put upon it. Let all honest men howl upon these wheat swindles till they shall be driven out of all respectable circles.

Washington Railroad.—Report of the Railroad Trustee to the Honorable County Court of Washington County—Gentlemen: At the request of the President of the Oregon Central Railroad Company, on last Saturday I passed over and examined the grade line of said company's railroad from the vicinity of Hillsboro, where I found a large force engaged, to a point beyond Beavertown. The character and character of the work utterly surprised me after the unfavorable reports about it. I can say unhesitatingly that the work is well done, and even better than the most of new roads I saw constructed in the State of Illinois. To insist that a company shall make their ditches and perfect the roadway before laying the track, is to insist upon breaking down any company and in fact the true plan in building railroads, because as soon as the track can be laid and the locomotive set at work it will do the labor of hundreds of men, carrying and dropping the earth from ditches and other excavations, where most needed, and thus saving vast sums in cost of construction.

The whole line is graded for ten miles and upwards in this county, and not a foot neglected, save that which is to be trestled, and for the trestling the company have been provided by contract, and the contractors are now at work putting it up in the most substantial manner. Large numbers of ties are being cut and delivered, and the company is putting forth every energy to push forward the road to early completion. They have already expended over one hundred and twenty five thousand dollars to build a road and open up this county. We will be the first to receive the benefits of their labors. Their investment is large enough to ensure the early completion of the road, and we cannot afford to be mean and niggardly with men who are the first to take hold and so bravely and perseveringly push this work for our common good. Every man ought to cheerfully give a helping hand. I recommend the payment of the railroad tax at once.

WM. R. SMITH, Railroad Trustee.

October 4, 1869.

Our Charities Acknowledged.—Mr. Ladd has received the following acknowledgment of the receipt of Portland's contribution to the Avondale sufferers:

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5, 1869

W. S. Ladd, Esq., Portland, Oregon.

Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your favor of the 23d ult., with check for two hundred and sixty seven dollars ($267) gold, the proceeds of which at 130 makes the sum of $347 10, for the benefit of the sufferers at the Avondale mine disaster.

Please accept my sincere thanks for yourself and the donors for this contribution, coming as it does from so great a distance, exhibits a healthful sympathy for suffering humanity.

I trust the contributions that have been coming in from all parts of the country may prove a blessing to them.

Yours truly,

GEO H. STUART Treasurer

The amount received at this office, alone, is

Directory for 1870.—Mr. A. Bushwiler will soon commence the canvass of the city for a portion of the matter of the Directory for 1870. There is one feature about former directories of this city which ought to be reformed—the designating of localities, such as "John Doe, Third street, between Yamhill and Taylor." This is not the fault of the directory makers, they describe localities as well as they can where houses are not numbered. There is an ordinance, passed in 1862, which directs that there shall be a uniform system of numbering the houses on First, Second, Third and Fourth streets, in that portion of Couch's Addition to the North line of Caruthers' Addition, and on the cross streets. At that time, the numbering was done as far as practicable, leaving the many vacant lots. Since that time there has been built hundreds of houses which have not been numbered. There should be some provision made for a general renumbering, and everybody should, as soon as practicable, put upon their houses the proper number in its proper place. It would add greatly to the convenience of all concerned.

Robbed by a Traveling Thief.—Mr. Arthur Sterne, who has resided for the last four years at Amity, Yamhill county, arrived at this city last evening by stage from Dayton. At an early hour in the evening, he came into the Recorder's Court to obtain help from the police to recover a pocket book containing $550 dollars in coin, which was stolen from his overcoat pocket after his arrival in the city. He states that during the day, while on the boat, he was aware of being watched by a fellow passenger, who followed him around and was disposed to form a more intimate acquaintance than Mr. S. desired. Both of the men went to the Occidental Hotel and Mr. S. took off his overcoat, which contained the money. He hung it up and went to the water sink to wash. The stranger was standing at the clerk's counter when he had washed himself. He went back, took down the coat, which he put on, when he instantly discovered that the pocket book was gone. The stranger was also gone. Mr. S. feels confident that the two went together.

November Term.—On Wednesday the following list of jurors was drawn to serve as grand and petit jurors of the Circuit Court, for the term to commence on Monday, November 8th: Robert Pittock, Jacob Smith, Andrew Roberts, Justus Strowbridge, J. M. Breck, R A White, O F Sheppard, G C Rider, Geo Knox, Jacob Wheeler (left the county; ballot destroyed and name drawn: J C Tongrow), James Powell, Thos Murphy, Hiram Smith, J G Tomlinson, Martin Wing, Jas Tillard, A J Tigart, Teodore Fox (left the county, ballot destroyed and in his stead drawn L Wetmore), H W Corbett, Geo W Vaughn, D G Abrams, J Sternberg, O P Lent, John Noltner, J B Prindle, Saml Brown, Louis Shaffer, W Beck, A E Rockwell, D W Williams, L Fliescher, A Hodge and P M Elliott drawn in his stead.

Railroad Iron on the Way.—Mr. Holladay informs us that the steamship Moses Taylor, which sailed at 12 M. yesterday from San Francisco, for this port brought on board two hundred tons of railroad iron for the Oregon railroad. The Alsey, which is in the river and the Gussie, expected to arrive here, has two hundred tons, the Fitzbury has two hundred tons, and the Wakefield has one hundred tons, and one of the locomotives. The latter two vessels are at sea. The balance of the material for the first twenty three miles will be brought by steamer, to insure its quick transportation. The people are likely having a railroad very speedily. The Company is quite certain that the cars will run from East Portland to Aurora long before the end of December.

Brevities.—The thermometer was down to 39 yesterday morning. Almost suggestive of skates.

The City Council has an ordinance under consideration increasing the number of deputy Marshals. A greater number of police is needed.

The condition of John Bell, the man who attempted suicide the other night, is said to be critical. He is insane and still pursues his idea of self destruction.

The Steamer Moses Taylor sailed from San Francisco at 12 o'clock yesterday morning for Portland.

Growth of the Country.—The Salem Statesman says: While comparing notes yesterday with a friend regarding the growth of our State he said that in 1857 he was living in Harrisburg, in Lane county, where he bought all the wheat offered for sale, and all he got during the whole fall and winter was sixty bushels, which was stored in dry goods boxes. Now at that place there is 10,000 bushels, on storage aside from that still retained in the farmers' granaries. The first crop was sold for ninety cents, while this one is worth between forty five and fifty thousand dollars.

Stolen Goods Recovered.—Marshal Saunders and some of his deputies, yesterday raised a cache of stolen goods, which had been hidden in the brush and in abandoned and all sorts of places about Billy Blackstone's place, north of the city. They made a pretty general search of the premises, assisted by one or two citizens and found a pretty general assortment of dry goods, clothing, boots, provisions etc. The goods are at the Recorder's Court room. A further search will be made to-day.

Soiree.—The next semi monthly soiree under the auspices of the Washington Guard, will take place at their Armory to-morrow evening. Dancers can count upon a pleasant party, as the Guard never indulge in any other kind.

Odd Fellow Coming.—It is reported that Fred. D. Stuart, Deputy Grand Sire of the Grand Lodge of the United States is about visiting Oregon, and that he will be in this city some time next week.

Oro Fino Theater.—Ingomar was very handsomely rendered at Oro Fino last evening, Mr. J. W. Carter as Ingomar and Mrs. Carter Parthenia, the performance concluding with the farce of "The Jealous Wife."

This evening, the beautiful play of Fanchon will be given. The character of Fanchon the Cricket, is one of Mrs. Carter's favorites, and in which she exhibits her very best style of acting. It is the universal verdict of those who have seen her in the character that she does it very perfectly.

Juan Fernandez

From the New York Times

If there is one spot of earth in which all who speak the English tongue may be said to take a common interest it is the island of Juan Fernandez. The favorite tale of nearly every childhood is by most of us remembered through life with grateful affection and the scene of its marvelous incidents shares in our regard. It may be true that the proper Robinson Crusoe's Island was not off the coast of Chili at all, but in the mouth of the Orinoco, and it may also be true that the continent should be called Columbia and not America, but habit has endeared to both cases the existing usage so that imagination takes precedence of what is or ought to be fact, and the continent will be America and Juan Fernandez Robinson Crusoe's Island until the end of the chapter.

Last winter the island was ceded by the Chilian Government to a company of Germans, who are led by one Robert Wehrhan, a Saxon engineer. He and his Society have now taken possession of the island and purpose to make it their home. They number some sixty or seventy individuals and have taken with them cows and other cattle, swine, fowls, all kinds of agricultural implements, with boats and fishing apparatus, and tools for the various mechanical trades. It is said that Wehrhan left Germany eleven years ago, and after passing some time in England was engaged on railways in South America. While there he conceived the idea that he has now carried into effect. This is a repetition on a larger scale of the experiment of Pitcairn's Island, without, of course, the criminal preface that stained the history of the crew of the Bounty. The world will watch the career of this little colony with deeply interested eyes, for, apart from the curiosity and sympathy naturally attracted by the experiment itself no more engaging spot could have been chosen in which to make it than that which is cherished in so many hearts as Robinson Crusoe's Island.

The Canada Thistle.—Very few of us in the Middle States, who read about the Canada thistle have any idea of the terrible scourge it is to the farmers of Canada and Western New York. Crops are often left uncut, because this weed renders them worthless, and many hundreds of farmers leave Canada every year, and emigrate to the Western part of the United States, facing the annoyance and uncertainties of new homes in untried lands, rather than contend with this abominable nuisance.

It is very remarkable that this English weed should flourish so remarkably in Canada. In its own country it is troublesome, but never so much so as to attract to it more attention than is given to other weeds, but there seems to be a law of nature that things should travel, and that therefore things are not best in the spots where nature placed them.

Around Philadelphia this thistle exists in great abundance, but with very little annoyance. It does not spread much to cultivated grounds, but confines itself to the waste lots on which it originally appears.

It is not likely that it will ever be a great pest below the line of New York. There seems to be some natural law which unfits it for progress below this, yet he will be wise, in view of the great havoc it causes, who destroys it wherever it appears. In many cases our tall native thistle, cirsium altissimum of botanists is mistaken for this plant. The real one, cirsium arvense, is a comparatively small species—the head of the flower being not more than an inch long, and the leaves long, narrow, crumpled and very spiny. The height is generally about eighteen inches.—Philadelphia Press.

Down in Delaware they have discovered what they fondly believe to be a severer punishment than the whipping-post. It is doubtful if outsiders will share the delusion. A notorious thief was lately arrested at Milford, and a local paper exclaims: "What terror has the whipping post to such black rascals as this? We hope the next sentence will be that he leaves the State under penalty of death!" Possibly even the black rascal will think that perpetual banishment from Delaware and consequent escape from its whipping post, is not the worst fate that could befal such as he.

Ungrateful.—It is said that the only bitter opposition that Andrew Johnson has in Tennessee for the United States Senate comes from the rebel element. They can't forgive him—the poor white—for having betrayed the Democracy in 1861, though they have not a word to say against his later and meaner treason to the Republicans.

A Western steamboat captain importuned by a life insurance solicitor observed, "Look here my friend, I never bet on any game where I've got to die to beat it."

"Married on Wednesday last after a vast amount of trials and tribulations," etc. is an announcement in a Lafayette (Ind.) paper.

Much Ado about Nothing

I am really so tired of this everlasting wail about the multiplicity of duties and "too much to do" among women of better classes, and especially among those of the middle class that I mean to give you a magnifying glass through which you may more correctly appreciate this great scare-crow of woman workers. I'm not talking of those who have a "mission," I'm talking of home-keepers, women who stay at home and have for an aim to make the house beautiful and comfortable, and the food palatable for fathers, brothers, and husbands. Those women who emerge into womanhood with such bright eyes and pure complexions, and lithe figures, and such lovable personalities altogether, and who, before they are thirty, are yellow, and lean and faded, with care full eyes that have wrinkles about them, and foreheads that are prematurely old, and shoulders that are prematurely bent. These are the women who are always sighing out that a woman's work is never done; but they have an idea that there is something immensely meritorious and sublime in this. And they just delight in making pack-horses of themselves, and in many cases killing themselves outright, with the very orthodox impression that they are to go straight into glory because they have died from over work—as if suicide of one kind is not just as bad as that of another.

About one half of the work that most women do is superfluous; and if the time given to it were used up in walking about out of doors for amusement and relaxation, or going to see pictures, or hearing music, or in entire repose, at home, of body and mind, they would live twice as long do twice as much real work and enjoy life, as God intended that they should, twice and thrice as much as they do now. As for those long-faced, skeleton-limbed, nasal-voiced people, who are forever preaching up work, and so very industriously showing our already driven-to-death people how they can employ usefully every minute of their waking time and not content with this, seeking means to abridge the scant time given to sleep—I wish I could ship them all off to colonize some desert island and there leave them with every appliance for work to fidget themselves into lunacy; for it would be far better so than that they should peril the mental and physical sanity of their fellows by preaching up and illustrating by practice a scandalous and unnatural doctrine. There are some people who are born with the organization of a perpetual motion machine within them, but most of us are only human, and half rest and half work are natural and necessary to us, if we want to get any real good and pleasure out of life; and if we transgress this law, we kill our faculty of enjoyment and turn ourselves into mere working machines. The superfluous work among women to which I have alluded is partly of that kind called fancy and ornamental work; and of the sort which it is well enough to do if we have plenty of health and time for it, but which ought invariably to be let alone if it involves an overtasking of nerves and muscles. Now, take a woman who keeps house for herself and two or three more in family. She undertakes to get along with only one servant to whom she can trust nothing. For the sake of economy the laundry work is done in the house. She keeps a sewing machine to do the family sewing. There are a thousand little things to keep her on her feet all day. If she would only divide the work into elementary, or strictly necessary, and the superfluous or ornamental, she would find that she could barely get through her necessary work without over-fatigue, and then have a little time left for amusement, exercise or mental improvement. As it is, she mixes up the necessary and superfluous work to such an extent that she never gets them separated or completed. The question of coffee for breakfast and the fluting of the ruffles on the children's dresses seem each to be equally important to her. If she would think a moment she would find that the coffee making is a necessity, the fluting of ruffles a superfluity, which leads me on to speak of the vast amount of superfluous labor involved in the trimming of children's and women's garments, according to the present style, with flounces and ruffles. It is simply a nuisance. It requires twice as much time to make a dress so trimmed; and for wash goods it requires from one to five hours extra labor every week to keep such things properly done up. Either extra money or time must be expended. Then, there is fancy work. Slippers and sofa pillows and anti-macassars or tidies, just as you please to call them. The amount of time spent on these things by women is simply incredible. Fancy work never was intended for any purpose but the graceful filling up of odd moments and for a woman to try her eyes over such things when she is tired and ought to be abed and asleep, or out walking or reading something useful, is not only foolish but sinful. Then, there is the preserving mania. There are hundreds of women who at that time are so overfagged that they can't keep on their feet ten minutes at a time, but who, during the Fall season, are deaf to the entreaties of friends to go away somewhere for rest and change, and who insist on staying at home, and covering shelves upon shelves with jars upon jars of pickles, preserves, jellies, and canned fruits, and who generally wind up with a long spell of sickness and a doctor's bill, which would more than pay for all the fruit they have put up, or else they are half sick and nervous and fretful all winter. A cheerful temper, a rosy cheek, and a sound constitution would do far more to make home happy than all these self-imposed labors. Overwork is a sin, if it is such work as can be dispensed with—work for which no one is to be wiser, or happier, or better, or healthier—administering to the craving luxuries. Let every woman who finds herself overworked, instead of putting on the air of a martyr about it, sift out the superfluous from the necessary labor, and she will find that the over work, in most cases, simply amounts to "Much ado about nothing."

HOWARD GLYNDON.

What we Owe to Humboldt.—Agassiz, in his oration upon Humboldt, says:

To what degree we Americans are indebted to him no one knows who is not familiar with the history of learning and education in the last century. All the fundamental facts of popular education in physical science, beyond the merest elementary instruction, we owe to him. We are reaping daily in every school throughout this broad land, where education is the heritage even of the poorest child, the intellectual harvest sown by him. See the map of the United States—all its important features are based upon his investigations, for he first recognized the great relations of the earth's physical features, the laws of climate on which the whole system of isothermal lines is based, the relative hight of mountain chains and table lands, the distribution of vegetation on the whole earth. There is no text-book, geography, or school atlas in the hands of our children to-day which does not bear, however blurred and defaced, the impress of his great mind. But for him our geographies would be mere enumerations of localities and statistics. He first suggested the graphic methods of representing natural phenomena which are now universally adopted. The first geographical sections, the first sections across an entire continent, the first averages of climate illustrated by lines were his. Every school boy is familiar with his methods now, but he does not know that Humboldt is teacher. The fertilizing power of a great mind is wonderful; but as we travel farther from the source it is hidden by the very abundance and productiveness it has caused. How few of us remember the tidal lines, the present mode of registering magnetic phenomena and the action of oceanic currents, are but the application of Humboldt's researches, and of his graphic mode of recording them!

The Actual Value of Cows.—The American Stock Journal, in reference to the subject, says: "Now, we can go into a dairying neighborhood, and point to farmers who are losing from two to three thousand dollars, by keeping cows yielding two hundred pounds of butter per year, instead of of those that would yield from five to six hundred pounds in the same time. How many dairymen can tell the relative value of each cow of his herd by actual test? There is a little instrument for this purpose that don't cost much, but very few dairymen know anything about it. It is called a "lactometer," constructed by placing a number of glass tubes, of equal length and diameter, in a wooden frame. The milk from each cow is placed in some of these glass tubes; there they stand side by side, and you can see the depth of cream that rises in each tube, representing a certain cow, and estimating her value thereby.

The City Council of Hartford having ordered the maples on Sigourney street to be cut down, the Courant next day had an article on "Trees and Idiots."

ORTON'S PREPARATION

ESTABLISHED [illegible]

One box of Orton's Preparation [illegible] destroy the appetite for Tobacco, [illegible] matter how strong the habit may be [illegible] any case the money will be refunded [illegible] safe and harmless to all [illegible] sible to break off the use [illegible] exercise of the will. Some [illegible] nature in overcoming a habit [illegible] the help of the Preparation [illegible] trouble. Hundreds have [illegible] bear witness to the fact, that [illegible] completely destroys the appetite [illegible] leaves the person as free from [illegible] before he commenced its use [illegible] directly upon the same glands [illegible] ed by Tobacco, and through these [illegible] roughly cleansing the poison [illegible] system and thus allaying the [illegible] Tobacco. No more hankering for Tobacco after using Orton's Preparation. Recollect it is [illegible]

The time taken to allay all desire [illegible] use of the Preparation varies slightly in [illegible] the average time being about Five days [illegible] desire for Tobacco whatever after [illegible] Two days.

The Health and Purse of every [illegible] country calls loudly, [illegible]

RECOMMENDS

The following are a few selected [illegible] recommendations in our p[illegible]

We, the undersigned, [illegible] Orton's Preparation for the [illegible] petite for Tobacco, and can assure [illegible] ing from this habit that Orton's Preparation [illegible] ly destroy the appetite for Tobacco [illegible] nently, and without any bad effect [illegible] without creating an appetite either for [illegible] any substitute.

From Samuel Cassidy, [illegible] Portland, Oregon.

For about twenty years I had used [illegible] rious forms, and for the past eight [illegible] inveterate smoker. Becoming [illegible] sive use of this narcotic was [illegible] health, I determined if possible to check [illegible] habit. Hearing of Orton's Preparation [illegible] the appetite for Tobacco, I sent [illegible] box of the medicine, which I [illegible] on the 17th of November. A month [illegible] yet the medicine has effectually [illegible] yearning or desire to use Tobacco [illegible] Preparation is not more difficult or [illegible] than to commence chewing gum. [illegible] have the Preparation will have the [illegible] effect in every instance where [illegible] Upon that belief and from an [illegible] who wish to break away from [illegible] Tobacco I offer this testimonial.

Beware of Counterfeits and of [illegible] ing to be like this, of the same [illegible] great popularity of Orton's Pre[illegible] unprincipled persons to attempt [illegible] counterfeit and inferior articles. [illegible] order directly from the Proprietor, or [illegible] Agents.

The price of Orton's Preparation is [illegible] box, or $2 sent by mail to any part [illegible] securely sealed from observation, [illegible] receipt of price.

How to send money by mail. [illegible] letter, see carefully register the letter [illegible] only 15c [illegible] of your Postmaster. Money [illegible] above directed at my risk. Address
